

Four Hurt, One Jailed In Crash

Four persons were injured in an early-morning crash here Sunday which resulted in the arrest of one man on suspicion of felony drunk driving. Police also arrested a second man for obstructing an officer.

The crash occurred about 2:30 a.m. at Torrance Boulevard and Anza Avenue. Police said a car driven by Edmund John Lorence, 21, of Hermosa Beach failed to stop for a red traffic signal and hit a small foreign sedan.

All four persons in the sedan were ejected. They included Leland N. Schlittenhard, 23, the driver; Donald A. Ames, 21, Janet Brassfield, 22, and Ronald L. Brassfield, 3, all passengers in the car. Schlittenhard sustained head and facial cuts and Ames received back injuries. The Brassfield woman suffered a broken nose, while the infant suffered a broken leg. All were taken to Little Company of Mary Hospital.

Officers arrested Lorence on suspicion of felony drunk driving. A second man was arrested on a charge of drunkenness and obstructing an officer. He was not involved in the crash.

Church Plans Five-Day Bible School

A five-day Vacation Bible School will begin at the Torrance Church of Christ, 3520 Emerald St., Aug. 16, according to Dr. Don H. McGaughey, minister.

Class assignments will be made on the basis of the public school grade just completed for children from kindergarten through the 7th grade. Games, Bible stories, crafts, and refreshments will be included in the morning program from 9 to 11:45.

Carnival Will Open Aquacade

Mary Poppin's "Dance a Painting" booth, corn-on-the-cob, and rock and roll bands will highlight a real old-fashioned carnival Friday and Saturday night, from 6 to 5 p.m. behind the City Plunge, 3331 Torrance Blvd.

The carnival precedes the tenth annual aquacade and is sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department.

Characters and scenes from ageless storybook tales will be reenacted as candied apples are sold at the "Snow White" booth and "fortunes" are told at the "Alladin's Lamp" stand.

BOOTHES HAVE been designed by park and playground recreation staffs. There will be a small charge for food and games.

The "Imperials," a dance band and charter club of the Torrance Recreation Department, under the direction of Jim Davidson, will begin playing on the deck of the Aquacade.

A major attraction of the carnival, reminiscent of vaudeville, is the All-City Variety Show which begins at 6:30 p.m. A completely different show will be presented each night.

THE "MERSEY MEN" appear on the stage Friday evening, along with "Clyde and the Ivy-Stalk" a puppet show written and produced by children in the puppeteer's workshop. Colette Eisele and Laura Fluck, known as the Frogs, will entertain with folk song comedy.

Saturday night entertainers include the locally well-known "Telstars," and a seven-member folksinging group, "Fireside Singers."

The Variety Show is being coordinated by Miss Kathi O'Bitz, Miss Jo Marsh, and Tim May.
